CAMPUS RESOURCES FOR DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Here we offer links to campus programs committed to diversity and inclusion across the university community, including staff, students, and faculty in a variety of roles.

* indicates funding support

- UW's Diversity Main page
  - Primary webpage at the UW promoting diversity. Include links to many other diversity-related programs at the UW.

- Center for Experiential Learning and Diversity Programs
  - Supports undergrad education. Funding opportunities, resources and events.

- UW Grad School's Diversity and Inclusion
  - Provides weekly updated information about the Graduate School's diversity efforts.

- Go-MAP
  - The Graduate Opportunities and Minority Achievement Program supports students of color and students from other underrepresented groups.

- GPSS Diversity Funding
  - Funds for Registered Student Organizations and Departments working on diversity at the UW Campus.

- McNair Program
  - Prepar[es] first generation college student and undergraduates from under-represented groups for doctoral study through involvement in research and scholarly activities.

- Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity (OMAD)
  - Mentoring and financial aid, new student orientation services, academic advising, instructional support.

- OMAD's DACA FAQ page
  - Provides information on the rescission of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program.

- Samuel E. Kelly Ethnic Cultural Center
  - Coordinates and develops minority educational programs on navigating the University and its resources.

- Student Parents Resource Center
  - Resources and financial support for student-parents, child care services.

- UW Center for Multicultural Education
  - College of Education. Research on race/diversity. Events & programs on diversity and equity.

- UW D Center
  - Resources and support for disabled and deaf students. Interpreter requests, events.

- College of Arts & Sciences Diversity Minor
  - Offers courses on Diversity Minor and provides links to resources on different aspects of diversity.

- Disability Resources for Students
  - Disability Resources for Students (DRS) recognizes disability as an aspect of diversity that is integral to society and to our campus community. DRS serves as a partner in fostering an inclusive and equitable environment for all University of Washington students.

- Disability Studies at the University of Washington
  - Undergrad minor. Language, research, policy supporting disability community.

- Diversity Research Institute
  - The UW Diversity Research Institute (DRI), focuses on generating new, interdisciplinary knowledge about diversity, social justice, and institutional transformation.

- GPSS Diversity Forums
  - Discussions about diversity at the UW throughout the year, open to any students, faculty and staff.
that are working on diversity efforts at the UW.

- GPSS Student Parents Association
  - Caregiver directory, on and off-campus resources and referrals for student parents.

- IDEA Center
  - Activities and training on intergroup dialogue (a social justice approach that foregrounds societal power relations of domination-subordination and creative possibilities for engaging with and across differences).

- International Student Office
  - Advising on visa and immigration, academics, housing, taxes and general student life for international students, funding support for International Students.

- Native Life and Tribal Relations
  - Seeks to centralize the Native-focused resources available on the University of Washington's campus in Seattle.

- Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity
  - Gateway to variety of undergraduate and graduate diversity support and resource programs.

- Q Center
  - Facilitates a “brave, affirming, liberatory, and celebratory environment for students, faculty, staff, and alumni of all sexual and gender orientation, identities, and expressions.”

- UW Dream Project
  - Leadership/educational support for high school students. Engages undergrads, page includes teaching resources.

- UW Race and Equity Initiative
  - Provides resources and information related to race and equity on campus from across the UW community.

- Women's Center
  - Promotes gender equity and social justice on campus and in the larger community.

UW LISTSERVS FOR DIVERSITY RESOURCES:

- uwtdrc: UW Tacoma Diversity Resource Center's mailing list.
- uwdivcal: To promote diversity events on the University of Washington
- gpss_diversity_committee: GPSS Diversity Committee

Source URL: https://geography.washington.edu/campus-resources-diversity-and-inclusion